2^ο Αραβο-Ελληνικό Ναυτιλιακό Συνέδριο
المؤتمر البحري العربي – اليوناني الثاني
2nd Arab-Hellenic Maritime Conference
Athens, 25 - 26 June 2025

“Cooperation Among Sea Neighbours”

Under the Auspices:

General Outlook:

The Arab-Hellenic Chamber will convene the "2nd Arab-Hellenic Maritime Conference" on June 25-26, 2025, in Athens, Greece. This event builds on the success of the inaugural conference held in July 2023, which brought together distinguished executives and government officials from Greece and the Arab world.

The strength of the Arab-Hellenic Chamber derives from its privilege of being the sole representative of all Arab Federations and Chambers of Commerce in Greece. Because of this distinction, the Chamber has been able to effectively play a significant role in opening and strengthening channels of communication between Greek and Arab businessmen to explore potential for cooperation, investment, and trade in all business sectors.

Participation:

The Arab-Hellenic Chamber's events are known for the good level of organization, selective focal points and sectors and the high level of participation. The sessions and deliberations of this Conference will be addressed by top CEOs and decision-makers, stakeholders in maritime and its various subsectors, along with some distinguished official representatives from Greece and the Arab world.

Sectors and Key Focus Areas:

Recognizing the diverse scope of maritime business activities and their close links to other sectors, the conference will explore in its sessions and deliberations and business meetings relevant issues to the maritime industry, ports infrastructure and services, shipbuilding yards and maintenance, supply chain and logistics, energy and environmental impact, facilitation of industrial and free zones and latest developments and trends in the maritime industries.

Venue: Divani Caravel Hotel (5*)

Conference languages: Greek and Arabic (simultaneous interpretation)
